

POWER PLAY

Exquisite works of art and design achieve striking equilibrium in a Bay Area residence by interior decorator Steven Volpe and architect Lewis Butler

TEXT BY MAYER RUS PHOTOGRAPHY BY PIETER ESTERSOHN PRODUCED BY HOWARD CHRISTIAN

Clockwise from top left: A turn-of-the-century French mirror hangs above a Mattia Bonetti chest off the central hall. The master bedroom's custom-made four-poster is accented with Holly Hunt leather; the mirror above the headboard is by Sam Orlando Miller. In the sitting area, a fire screen by Christophe Côme complements the cocktail table custom made by Juan Garrido. FontanaArte sconces grace the master bathroom; the sink fittings are by Dornbracht, and the standing mirror is by Paul Evans.