

17

(THRU JAN. 21, 2019)
 The "Holiday Train Show" pulls into the New York Botanical Garden, a sure sign that the festive season has arrived. nybg.org

22

Charlie Brown's balloon doppelgänger—hardly a peanut at 46 feet tall—flies his red kite high above the streets of New York in the annual Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. macys.com/social/parade

5

(THRU NOV. 11)
 Bronx-born Tracy Morgan returns to his hometown and stand-up roots at the 15th annual New York Comedy Festival, a seven-day laugh feast, featuring more than 200 comedians. nycomedyfestival.com

Funny Guy

8

(THRU NOV. 12)
 Madrid's Garrido Gallery raises the bar in the fine and decorative arts with this contemporary gold-plated low table at The Salon Art + Design fair at the Park Avenue Armory. thesalonny.com