Nickel-plated metal.

The Nickel Crystal Console Table is a magnificent artistic piece complex in its design and execution. Hand-assembled from numerous metal segments, the design is an artistic interpretation of crystal-forming processes, which inspired the creation of this piece. The multifaceted facade of this piece challenges the perception of a usual console table. The table's surfaces is treated with high sheen polishing in combination with the vibrant nickel lustre, offering an overall sensual experience of the artwork and turning it into a highly reflective and complex mirror design.
